Memo to all Lebanese Citizens Residing in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland concerning their Vote in the Upcoming 2013 Lebanese Parliamentary Elections

The ministry of Interior and Municipalities is currently undertaking the necessary arrangements that will enable Lebanese Nationals residing in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland to vote in the upcoming 2013 Parliamentary Elections at the Lebanese Embassy in London.

In compliance with Law Number 25 dated 10/8/2008 promulgated in Number 41 of the official Lebanese Gazette dated 10/09/2008, in particular article number 106, the Lebanese Embassy calls upon all Lebanese citizens residing in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland who wish to cast their vote in the upcoming Lebanese Parliamentary elections in 2013 to proceed as follows:

“For those willing to vote in London, they should register their names by appearing in person* at the Lebanese Embassy in London, providing all required information related to their identity and number of civil registry.”

In order to qualify to vote, the listing procedure must be fulfilled by no later than December 31, 2012.

It is worth mentioning that there are two (2) approved identification documents that can be used to vote:

1. The national identity card (new edition)

or

2. A valid passport (either the burgundy or the new blue passport)

*If the individual is unable to appear in person at the Embassy of Lebanon in London, they can fill out the attached affidavit and have it notarized at a notary public and then send it to the Embassy of Lebanon with a copy of their Lebanese Identity Document (Identity card and Passport)
